Subject: Budget

Web mail from: Mr. Patrick Cunningham

address: 5031 Garland Circle Anchorage AK 99508

MESSAGE:

Thank you, Governor Palin for your letter regarding the University of Alaska Regent's Budget. This is a follow-up to the postcard that I sent. The Regent's have now finalized their budget. Under the capital request is the UAF Bio Building and UAA Health Sciences Building. Last year you approved the planning money for the Health Sciences Building and I recommend that you place this building at the top of your priority list for the upcoming Legislative Session in 2008. Nursing and the other related Health Sciences need this facility in order to improve the quality of instruction and to expand sufficiently to meet the health care needs of Alaska citizens. Physicians are becoming increasingly scarce as primary care resources but the Nursing Program is posed to increase their Nurse Practitioner programs in response to this anticipated shortage.

Best wishes, Patrick M Cunningham

Governor Palin Praises the Work of the House of Representatives

November 11, 2007, Juneau, Alaska – Governor Sarah Palin today thanked the members of the Alaska House of Representatives for their work in passing ACES.

"I am sincerely grateful to all the members of the House of Representatives for their efforts over the past 25 days." Governor Palin said. "They have worked diligently in pursuing the people's business. All Alaskans can be proud of the bill the House has passed."

"I am particularly happy that the 25 percent rate was included. We worked closely with legislators from both sides of the aisle to make sure that Alaska remains an attractive place to invest in oil and gas development. At the same time, they have moved to ensure that Alaskans receive an equitable share of these non-renewable resources."

"If this bill is enacted, we will all take a positive step forward in Alaska's future. I look forward to working with members of the Senate to preserve the good work done by the House tonight."

The ACES bill now moves to the Senate.

Hi-

You have the House to yourself tomorrow, the CCRW won't be decorating and the staff is off. Hope that's a good thing!

Turn up the heat if it's too cold- thermostats for the 1st floor are in the closet in the back stairwell by the kitchen. If it's not heating up call me-might be boiler problems...

There's a lot of deli meat- but call if you want anything else.

Of course! Today, was pure pleasure, just got done shaking hands (with Gen. Layfield) with 345 or so returning troops as they got off the 747 with their gear. I don't think I've seen such collectively happy faces in a long time. (Some were troubled too--but overall, my spirits were lifted just by seeing them come off the plane.)

I am told they got on the plane in Kuwait and walked into our beautiful falling snow tonight. Some had their heads tilted back catching the flakes in their mouth. Pure blessing to even be a witness to all this! Look forward to catching up when we can.

Not sure how they didn't get regrets or have someone from the group stand up and acknowledge that you weren't able to make it, but thought I'd pass this along to you.

Hello!

That's just not right- who leaves Hawaii early??!!! Good decision though; it would be hard to relax and enjoy the sun, warm sand, tropical smells, drinks w little umbrellas... Now you'll just need to go back!! :)

It would be cool if they were able to meet up- Alex was all happy when he found out you guys would be there-and so close! The kid would probably run 5 miles if he had too, he's such a goof!

Did you see my note about decorators on Monday (9-4) it's no problem to reschedule, but I wanted to check with you before I made any calls.

Hi E-

I hope Bristol found Alex. I think our hotels are just a few doors down.

I hustled back to Juneau early- felt to guilty and nervous being away w/special session... so I'm here. Todd and kids stayed for the wedding that is tonight, they'll return to Anchorage late Tuesday. It was flippin' GORGEOUS there!

Sandy and I went to two ceremonies on Ft Rich and I read portions of your proclamation. Jay is on his way to Palmer Pioneer Home and will read the same portions of your proclamation on your behalf. At some point about 300 warriors return to Elmendorf (within next three hours). Sandy and I plan to meet them. Hope your day is well--we remember you, Todd, Trak and family. Thanks for your guys' personal investment of your lives and that of your son.

Sean

Joe:

You're welcome. I hope you enjoy the new TV spot. If not, use the UTube link herein, or download the attached file. Please distribute with abandon. I tried to fly in today to testify, but couldn't land. Will try again on Saturday.

Have a good day;

Well the gallery doesn't look locked, but I don't see the usual suspects.

He did the right thing that's for sure! Oh, great article in the ADN today by Cockerham re: oil and gas tax legislation. NONE of the people that wrote in to comment on the article were in favor of the 22.5% tax rate. Goes to show you and Mike Kelly and others are right on with the tax rate, prog, admin tools, etc. that bring AK it's fair share.

Today is going to be interesting. I was just talking to Ian (special asst in Rev.) and he said they aren't allowing anybody in the gallery, they're locking the doors, and no cell phones or pagers are allowed on the floor.

I'm paraphrasing of course, but he was very thoughtful and wise. H fin is still going strong tonight.
